Community Santa Rosa Police Department Announces Results of Court Sting Operation

On April 4th, 2016 between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 12:00 p.m., officers from the Santa Rosa Police Department conducted an undercover 'Court Sting' operation at the Sonoma County Courthouse, targeting suspected drivers whose licenses were suspended/revoked or who were unlicensed drivers.

Police officers staked out offenders who had been told by a judge not to drive and/or who had been told of their license suspension. Twelve offenders were followed by officers from courtrooms to their vehicles to ensure that they were not driving. While most offenders complied with the law and had alternate means of transportation, three individuals proceeded to get behind the wheel and drove away from the court house.

Those who chose to drive were stopped by waiting officers. Among those stopped for driving while suspended or unlicensed then cited back into court were:

Jeffrey , a 60 year old Santa Rosa resident, for driving on a suspended license.
Sammie , a 43 year old Santa Rosa resident, for driving on a suspended license.
Rebeca , a 28 year old Sonoma resident, for driving on a suspended license.

This special DUI operation was funded by a grant from the California Office of Traffic Safety, through the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration. Please help Santa Rosa PD every day of the week: Report Drunk Drivers – Call 9-1-1!
